

Design-a-Date

Years ago, a popular social activity was the progressive dinner. A progressive dinner is simply a party where each course is eaten at a different host's house in the same evening. In other words, the guests progress from house to house for appetizers, salad, dinner, and dessert.

This Design-a-Date captures the essence of the progressive dinner but turns it into a date night adventure!

Start with appetizers at one restaurant, salad at a second, the main course at a third, and finish off with dessert at a fourth restaurant.

Additional Options:

If the budget is tight, skip the main course and just enjoy appetizers, salad, and dessert!

Capture couple selfies along the way.

Select restaurants you've never been to before.

Talk about your relationship as it relates to that part of the meal.

- What do you remember about when you first met (appetizer)?
- What's one of your favorite memories from dating (salad)?
- What's the best part of your relationship now (main course)?
- What's one thing you'd love to do together in the future (dessert)?

Enjoy dessert at home...in bed...with lovemaking to follow.
